

Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS the newly renovated St. Charles Complex hereinafter referred to as the St. Charles in Pierre, South Dakota, in honor of their grand opening would like to proclaim their value as a cornerstone of the past and a landmark of the future; and

WHEREAS the St. Charles has consistently played an important role in the State of South Dakota's business community since it first opened on January 1, 1911; and

WHEREAS the St. Charles now merges the past and the present into a fine dining, grand meeting, and shopping place; and

WHEREAS the St. Charles not only has served as a home for many South Dakota legislators and lobbyists, it has also been and continues to be the site for political meetings, gala affairs, banquets, balls, and theatrical performances;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICHELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this sixteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-seven.

George S. Michelson
GEORGE S. MICHELSON, GOVERNOR
